NEW LEADER IN KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

Robert M. Grumbling Takes Command at Impressive Lodge Ceremonies

By KATHERINE V. SINKS
Of The Evening News Staff.

Glendale Knights Templar bade Dr. Roy V. Hogue, their eminent commander, farewell and greeted Robert M. Grumbling, their new leader, last night at a turkey dinner and installation in the Masonic temple on South Brand boulevard.

Imperial valley turkey, specially shipped to Glendale, was the piece de resistance of the splendid menu enjoyed by the Knights, their families and other guests. During the dinner hour orchestral music entertained.

The installation took place later in the lodge room upstairs, where every available seat was taken. Eminent Sir Charles L. Peckham, past commander of Glendale commandery, served as installing officer; Eminent Sir Clem L. V. Moore, as installing marshal, and Eminent Sir Ben O. Hagen as installing prelate.

Install Officers

Preliminary to the installation ceremony, Dr. Hogue, retiring commander, presided, detailing an escort for the installing officers and the officers-elect, and the assembled company sang "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

Robert M. Grumbling, eminent commander-elect, was the first officer installed. This was followed by the installation of William W. Worley, generalissimo; J. Hartley Taylor, captain general; Sidney S. Gilbuly, senior warden; William MacMillan, junior warden; Oscar E. Von Oven, prelate; Frank H. Vesper, treasurer; Charles C. Rittenhouse, recorder; Riley Lyons, sentinel; Dr. Roy V. Appointive officers are: Thomas Wood, warder; Frederick Clark, standard-bearer; James M. Fife, sword-bearer; T. D. Watson, third guard; Dwight W. Stephenson, second guard; Francis J. W. Henry, first guard.

The evening was a happy combination of dignified ceremonial, pleasing sociability and inspiring fraternalism.

One very fitting honor paid Mr. Grumbling came from Glen Eyrie chapter, Order of Eastern Star, of which he is a past patron. Jennie A. Phillips, worthy matron of Glen Eyrie, was present and in behalf of that organi-

King and Queen Of Greece Leave Country In Fear

LONDON, Dec. 18.—King George and Queen Elizabeth, of Greece, are preparing to leave tonight for Roumania, according to a despatch from Athens this afternoon. Their decision was taken after hostile demonstrations had broken out against the Hellenic royal family at Athens.

PARIS, Dec. 18.—King George of Greece departed from Athens for Roumania today, according to a news agency received here this morning.

The king had been requested to leave by Colonel Plastiras, of the revolutionary committee, and Premier Gounatas, owing to growing hostility against the Hellenic royal family.

Soldiers and Sailors Stage Hostile Demonstration In Athens Streets

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Premier Gounatas and Colonel Plastiras, head of the revolutionary committee, have signed a letter asking King George to leave Greece, according to a Central News dispatch from Athens this afternoon. It is reported that King George has telegraphed former Premier Venizelos to return to Greece from Paris where he has been living since the conclusion of the Near East conference at Lausanne.

An official dispatch from the foreign office at Athens said the powerful political leaders in Greece had requested King George to leave but only until a new cabinet is formed.

King Scorns Warning

ATHENS, Dec. 18.—Hostile demonstrations against the royal family broke out here today. Soldiers and sailors took part. The demonstrators paraded the streets shouting, "Down with King George."

When King George received a message from Colonel Plastiras and Premier Gounatas requesting him to leave the country, at least temporarily, he is said to have replied:

"I will not leave. Whoever dares to attempt to remove me, let him try."

ASQUITH DENIES COALITION PLANS

Early Dissolution of Tory Regime Predicted By Former Premier

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Former Premier H. H. Asquith, addressing the liberal members of parliament today, declared that the liberals "have not entered into negotiations with any other party for a coalition." He added:

"That freedom I intend to preserve uncompromised and unfettered in complete integrity."

"The Liberals will not support either a protective tariff policy nor any proposal for a levy on capital," Asquith continued.

"The days of the present (Baldwin) government are numbered. They (the Tories) have reduced this country to a cipher in the councils of the world. I will not move a finger to prolong their disastrous stewardship."

The sudden change in the mayor's condition caused great alarm in view of his greatly weakened condition and the fact that the pneumonia attack brought complications previously feared by his physician. The city's chief executive is reported in great pain and unable to rest at any time.

Blame Dual Tragedy On Week End Debauch

SEATTLE, Dec. 18.—Investigation was continued today by Coroner W. H. Corson into the death of Eugene A. Childe, prominent attorney, former police judge and state legislator, and his beautiful law client, Miss Clara Lien, 22-year-old divorcee and talented dancer, whose bodies were found late yesterday in a gas-filled cottage, where they are believed to have died twenty-four hours previous. The tragedy is believed to be the sequel to a week-end liquor party.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18.—Three Shell Oil company filling stations were held up early today, one of them by a pretty woman, according to reports to the sheriff's office.

E. L. Kolwood, operator of a station at Fiftieth street and Santa Fe avenue, reported that a pretty woman, in a large and expensive automobile, drove into his station and ordered gasoline, but when he went to collect for it he found himself looking into the barrel of a revolver.

Before the woman got any money, however, she was frightened by another machine coming into the station and escaped.

The two other stations were robbed of a total of $150.

BOOM DIXON FOR VICE-PRESIDENCY

Montana Governor Willing to Enter Campaign as G. O. P. Candidate

HELENA, Mont., Dec. 18.—Word from Washington that a vice-presidential boom for Governor Joseph M. Dixon, Republican of Montana, was started there, reached here today, and those close to the governor admit that he was considering the idea.

It is believed that, should the opportunity present itself for the governor to enter the race, Dixon will follow the urgings of his friends and run for vice-president, instead of seeking re-election as governor.

Dixon is completing his first four year term as governor. Before this he was a congressman and United States senator from Montana, and in 1912 was manager of the Roosevelt Bull Moose campaign for president.

HIRAM JOHNSON HELPS DEADLOCK

California Senator Joins Insurgents In Blocking Senate Organization

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The little militant group of Republican Progressive insurgents this afternoon again blocked the organization of the senate.

Drafting additional strength from the ranks of the so-called Republican regulars, the insurgents deadlocked for the fifth time the election of a chairman for the interstate commerce committee.

On the day's first ballot, the fifteenth in the contest, the insurgents won over Senator Hiram W. Johnson, Republican, of California, and Senator Arthur Capper, Republican, of Kansas. They joined the Progressives in voting for Senator James Couzens, Republican, of Michigan, as a compromise candidate, and brought the insurgent strength to fourteen votes, the highest yet recorded. The so-called regular Republicans continued voting for Senator Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, while the Democrats supported Senator Ellison D. Smith, Democrat, of South Carolina, a former chairman.

The result was: Smith 39, Cummins 37, Couzens 14.

There was no change on the second ballot.

SEWER BOND DETAILS TO BE GIVEN

Facts and Figures Are Ready For Submission To Mass Meeting

Interest in the mass meeting that is to be held in the auditorium of the Glendale Union high school, on East Harvard street, at 7:30 o'clock tonight, to discuss the proposed issue of $1,600000 in bonds to construct a modern sanitary sewer system in Glendale has reached a pitch that insures a crowded house, according to the men who are in close touch with the situation.

Every detail of the proposed system will be explained by Chester A. Smith, the engineer who has made the survey and who has prepared the figures of the cost of the sewers and of the routes that the system will follow. Mayor Spencer Robinson and Councilman Sam Davis, two of the men who have fought for so long to secure a sewer system for Glendale, will explain the negotiations with the officials of the City of Los Angeles and will also take up the contract that has been entered into by that city and by Glendale, showing where Glendale profits by the terms of the agreement and what the financial advantages to Glendale will be through the construction of the sewer system through the issue of the bonds at the election to be held on January 8, 1924.

Financial Phases

Councilman Asa Hall, who has been conducting a close examination of the conditions governing the proposed bond issue, will talk on the effect that the issue of bonds to the amount of $1,600,000 will have on the assessed valuation of Glendale, the rates of interest to be paid, and will cover the financial end of the matter from every possible angle.

Representatives of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce sewer campaign committee will also be on hand to answer any questions that may be asked by the audience, as it is desired to have the fullest light shed on every point involved in the issue of the bonds and in the construction of the sewers.

"We want every man and woman in Glendale to attend the mass meeting and learn just what it is proposed to do with the money that they are to be asked to vote," said Lyman P. Clark, chairman of the campaign publicity committee, "and we are going to place before those who attend the meeting every fact that has the remotest bearing on the entire project that is such a crying need in Glendale today."

Curtis Denies Buying New York Newspaper

PHILADEPHIA, Dec. 18.—Cyrus H. Curtis, owner of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, the Saturday Evening Post and other publications, today said he had not purchased the New York Evening Post, as rumored. "I have not bought the Post—yet," Curtis said.

Edward F. Gay of New York, head of the group now owning the Post, said negotiations were under way with a view of selling the publication to Curtis.

Clemenceau Rallies After Auto Accident

PARIS, Dec. 18.—The rugged constitution of former Premier Georges Clemenceau, who was injured in an automobile accident Sunday, has pulled him through today, despite his 82 years and the fact that a would-be assassin's bullet is lodged in his chest.

The "tiger" insisted on sitting at his desk in spite of his doctor's orders to take it easy.

"Oh, I'm all right," he declared to inquiring friends.

Federals Defeat Rebel Forces In 'Key City' Fight

TAMPICO, Mex., Dec. 18.—Federal troops have inflicted a crushing defeat upon the rebels at San Marcos, capturing 200 prisoners, according to advices received from Mexico City this afternoon.

The federals also captured a large supply of munitions and a naval gun which had been dismounted from the gunboat Zaragoza and carried inland to reinforce the land artillery.

San Marcos lies at the junction of the Inter-oceanic and Mexican railways and is the "key city" to the eastern coast. The battle had been in progress more than twelve hours.

The victory is regarded here as presaging the early defeat of the Huertaista rebels who are reported in retreat destroying railways and bridges as they retired.

MEXICAN REBELS MENACE TAMPICO

U. S. Intervention Is Offered To Halt Civil Strife, Report Declares

TAMPICO, Mexico, Dec. 18.—It was reported from Mexico City today that the American charge d'affaires, George T. Summerlin, had offered the friendly offices of the United States for intervention in Mexico's civil strife.

A rebel attack against the federals defending the Tampico oil fields is imminent. One thousand volunteers are being armed for the defense of the petroleum belt.

Opinion is growing that Tampico rather than Mexico City will be the eventual goal of the rebels. This is the richest port in the republic owing to its vast oil shipments.

College Will Probe Athletic Field Fire

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 18.—An investigation to determine if the destruction of the Nebraska Wesleyan Athletic field by fire was an "act of vandalism" was under way today.

Chancellor Schreckengast declared that no information had been given him to the effect that students in the university had set fire to the wooden stands, but that if student incendiaries had fired the structure "we will be glad to see that they are punished."

PROGRAM OF LEADERS IN HOUSE IS HALTED

Proper Procedure Results In Outbreak; Moscow Receives Refusal

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—On the heels of the peace just established between the warring factions of the house, fresh hostilities broke out today over the question of whether the Mellon tax plan or the soldiers' bonus shall have precedence on the legislative program of the sixty-eighth congress.

Fear that a majority of the house ways and means committee would override the decision over Republican leaders and put the bonus ahead led the committee chairman, Representative Green, Republican, Iowa, to cancel a meeting today and announce that Republican leaders are in favor of considering tax reduction first. A majority of the committee members, however, are opposed to this procedure, and a new fight flared forth.

Call Off Meeting

Republican leaders claimed that consideration of the administrative features of the Mellon plan by the committee is necessary, so probable increase in revenues as a result of the reforms in the law tending to prevent tax-dodging can be learned. They asserted today there is no purpose in this program to delay unduly consideration of the soldiers' bonus legislation.

The leaders' decision to sidetrack temporarily the soldiers' bonus resulted in the cancellation of the proposed meeting of the committee today.

Representatives Frear, Republican, of Wisconsin, and Rainey, Democrat, of Illinois, members of

GLENDALE NEEDS MORE FACTORIES

Is Facing Reaction Unless Capital Secured, Says Newspaperman

"There is not enough money in Glendale to finance the industries that are needed here.

"Glendale has the brightest prospects of any city in the United States.

"Glendale has a climate not excelled anywhere in the world, not excepting that of Jerusalem."

With these terse statements, C. W. McMorran, former financial representative of the United States Treasury Internal Revenue Service, and nationally known newspaper correspondent, told the directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce last night that this city is facing a reaction of conditions if financial aid is not forthcoming in sufficient amounts to continue its progress.

"You are facing conditions, not theories," the speaker said, using the term he said originated with Grover Cleveland. "And unless you meet these conditions and take care of them you will suffer for it."

No Boom Here

Mr. McMorran scouted the idea that Glendale is experiencing a boom. "Instead of a boom," he said, "Glendale is sustaining a natural growth and development, but unless money is provided for financing large industries, so that work will be available to the thousands of people coming here each month, there is bound to be a reaction.

"You need textile mills to manufacture the raw cotton grown in Southern California; you need factories for turning the hides from cattle raised in this state into the finished product."

The speaker concluded by suggesting that the Chamber of Commerce get behind a movement to have a large financial syndicate furnish capital for bringing industries to Glendale. He suggested that no less than $25,000,000 would be needed.

TRAGEDY STRIKES AT KIDS' FRIEND

'House of Babies' Shrouded In Gloom As Death Hovers By Tot's Bedside.

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—A tinge of sadness crept into pre-Christmas excitement at the "House of Babies" today.

Max Dicks' boy, Irving, is dying.

The little chap may not live to hang up his stocking on Christmas Eve, and only the mothers of this big tenement house in the Bowery know what a calamity this would be, what a calamity it would be to Max Dicks.

Who is Max Dicks?

"Max Dicks," said Mrs. Jake Berger, who lives in the third floor front, in the "House of Babies" on the lower East Side, "is the finest man that ever lived.

Year Round Santa

"He's our all-the-year-round Santa. Any mother in the tenement will tell you so."

Mrs. Berger should know. A few weeks ago the stork came to her humble home and brought twins.

"The doctor had no sooner left than in came Max Dicks," said Mrs. Berger. "He was all smiles.

"'Twins!' he exclaimed, 'that's the best yet in the House of Babies.'

"He called my husband aside. He gave him $500—$250 for each twin. And he said he'd take no rent for six months."

Children's Friend

Max Dicks had played Santa to many, many little mothers in his big tenement before. His two most famous slogans have been "Rent free if you can't pay," and "No children—no apartment."

Last Christmas there wasn't a kiddie of the 325 kiddies in the building, who didn't have a doll, a red wagon, a set of blocks, an electric train or something, and to the fifty-six tired, over-worked little mothers there isn't any mystery as to who played Santa Claus.

Every time a baby has been born in the "House of Babies" the parents have received $50 from the year-round-Santa. It's a standing offer.

The push cart peddlers in front of the Dicks tenement pay no rent. Mrs. Charles Heiden, who collects the rent for the building, says the rent hasn't been raised in twenty years. Three room apartments are still $15 a month.

The little bent mothers will tell you Max Dicks was penniless when he came to this country from Austria years ago. He worked as a tailor's helper for $2.75 a week. Now, at sixty, he owns two big tenements. Never in his climb to riches, has he forgotten the little mothers or their babies.

Pray for Sick Boy

"That's why," said Mrs. Berger, "that the mothers of this tenement have turned their Christmas thoughts from toys to prayers.

"Go into the little church down the block and see how many folks are praying for Max Dicks' boy.

"I can't believe but that God will answer these prayers. Surely God will not be unkind to a man like Max Dicks, a man in whose heart the spirit of Christmas shines all the year around."

Irish Vocalist Will Sing Here

ALLEN McQUHAE

Allen McQuhae, whose singing of songs is charming thousands of people every season, is, it is almost needless to say, an Irishman. By his name one might think him a Scot, but as soon as he opens his mouth to sing, he's Irish, all Irish. Scotland does not produce such voices as his, nor does even the sister country of Wales, although there have been some famous Welsh tenors, famous for the sweetness of their voices, like Evan Williams and Ben Davies. But there is a peculiar quality which seems to come only from the south of Ireland, a sweet and mellow richness which insinuates itself into the heart of the hearer. The same sweet and soft climate which gives to the girls of southern Ireland the loveliest complexions of any girls in the world puts into the throats of its men as peculiar timbre of voice which is as characteristic of the country as the soft gray of its skies and the soft green of its verdure.

This noted concert artist will appear in Glendale on Friday, January 11, under the auspices of the Glendale Music club, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse. Season tickets for the five artist concerts that are to be given during the season are now on sale at the Glendale Music Co., 109 North Brand boulevard; Glendale Book store, 113 South Brand boulevard, and from the Glendale Music club, of which Mrs. Mattison B. Jones is president. Mrs. Jones states that those who desire the special Christmas tickets, $4 for the five concerts, should secure them at once.

GLORIES OF KING TUT'S TOMB FADE

Exposure to Air Is Cause of Shrine's Deterioration, Visitor Declares.

LUXOR, Egypt, Dec. 18.—The brilliant coloring of the shrine of Tut-Ankh-Amen in the inner chamber of the 3,000-year-old tomb in the Valley of the Kings has begun to fade because of exposure to air from the outside, it was revealed when a correspondent was allowed to view the crypt. Already serious deterioration has developed in the mortuary chapel, indicating that the outer shrine cannot be dismantled without crumbling. Members of the staff of Howard Carter, Egyptologist in charge of the work, admitted it would be difficult to dismantle the shrine successfully. Carter attempted to preserve the brilliancy of the coloring by covering the exterior of the shrine with wax, but without much success. The shrine already has begun to look like an old second-hand piece compared with its beauty when first uncovered. Cracks are beginning to appear at some places. The shrine room is hewn from solid rock. The walls are decorated with a colored figure of the king (Tut-Ankh-Amen) receiving favors from the gods.

Within the shrine is a catafalque of ebony, hung with a linen pall and golden rosettes. Inside the catafalque is a second shrine believed to contain the sarcophagus with the pharaoh's mummy.

Carter said he hoped the dismantling of the shrines would be completed in a month. Then the mummy of Tut may come under human scrutiny before February and for the first time in thirty centuries.

AUTO THEFT RING

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18.—One of the largest auto theft rings in the south is believed to have been broken up by the arrest in San Bernardino late yesterday of C. E. Eggers, wanted in Veblin, S. D., for stealing autos. Eggers is being held at the Los Angeles county jail awaiting his removal to South Dakota.

Charles Sweyden, Eggers' alleged partner in the auto thieving business, is being held at Veblin at the present time, according to Department of Justice Agent Wheeler. The agent declared that these two men ran a garage in the South Dakota city, and with a large band of confederates made a practice of organized automobile stealing.

SEEKS NEW TRIAL

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18.—Michael Degnan, wealthy radium expert, convicted of an attack upon Eloise Clement, occult lecturer, has asked the court to set aside the verdict of conviction and to grant him a new trial. Arguments on the motion will be heard Thursday. Degnan's attorneys based their plea for a new trial on remarks made by Judge Conklin during the trial.

THEATRES

THE GLENDALE

The screen version of "Six-Cylinder Love," Broadway comedy hit in which Ernest Truex achieved such a success during the past year, is now being presented by William Fox at the Glendale Theatre, with Truex still in the lead.

And this diminutive star is just as clever in the celluloid adaptation as he was in the original play. Elmer Clifton, recognized as one of the leading directors, made the feature. The story is based on the trials and tribulations of two families facing the daily fight to make both ends meet—when said ends are being pulled constantly further apart by a powerful six-cylinder car.

Others in the notable cast are Florence Eldridge, Ralph Sipperly, Donald Meek, Maud Hill and Marjorie Milton.

Tiles made in Cairo and Damascus in medieval times are of such beauty that squares of nine or16 are often sold for hundreds of dollars.

THE GATEWAY

"Ponjola," that amazing romance of a kissless bride who masquerades as a man for love, cuts her hair short, puts on boots and endures all the hardships the African veldt holds for man, to save the one she loves from "Ponjola," which is the native word for drink, still continues at the Gateway Theatre, where it is drawing big crowds by its unusual plot.

Anna Q. Nilsson is in the lead. Supporting her is a splendid cast including James Kirkwood, Tully Marshall, Joseph Kilgour, Ruth Clifford and Claire McDowell. It is a First National proudction, directed by Donald Crisp for Sam E. Rork. The story is adapted from the novel by Cynthia Stockley.

Seldom has such a sensational picture come to the screen so sincerely done.

Tigers' jaws and teeth easily crush the large bones of a buffalo and the striped animal can break a horse's back with one blow of his forepaw.

HORNSBY IS DUE TO JOIN M'GRAW

Jawn Back From Europe On Friday; Then Maybe He Will Talk

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Our Mr. McGraw is due to arrive in this country on Friday aboard the Leviathan and among others will be disinterred forthwith and without further preamble, prelude or ceremony. Gentlemen of the press in this particular community die with their pencils poised.

They can see nothing else beyond the prospect of Hornsby taking up a permanent residence at the Polo grounds and cite the fact that Branch Rickey declined to discuss the player with Bill Killefer and Bill McKechnie, respective managers of the Cubs and Pirates, at the recent Chicago meetings, as proof positive that McGraw "knows something." Baseball men in general are of the same opinion, some of them even going so far as to intimate that the transfer in question already has been effected.

McGraw and Rickey had a two-hour conference at the Waldorf just prior to John's departure for Europe, and it was at this meeting that the business is said to have been closed. Denials have been issued by both parties; in fact, McGraw went on record as having lost interest in Hornsby, but the boys would have it otherwise.

Another report is that McGraw will get George Burns and a first string pitcher from the Reds with the idea of offering them with others, to the Cardinals for the great Rogers.

The Cincinnati trade, if any, is said to involve the passing of Bill Southworth to the Reds. In this case Burns most certainly would remain in New York, Hornsby or no Hornsby. One of the rules of baseball is that a manager must place nine men in the field, and McGraw cannot oblige without a center-fielder.

Emmett McCann, infielder with the Portland club, is alleged to be one of McGraw's objectives. McCann was with the Athletcs several years ago but showed nothing but an open countenance.

Johnny Dundee Has Two Titles Again

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Johnny Dundee today succeeded in his ambition of being a double titleholder. The Scot, present featherweight champion, regained the title of junior lightweight champion from Jack Bernstein at the end of fifteen rouns of fighting at Madison Square Garden last night.

Dundee, in regaining the tile he lost t o Bernstein, last night shared his honors with "sweet charity," the show being pulled off for the benefit of the New York American's Christmas fund. The attendance reached 13,589, and the gate $74,970.

Bernstein had the better of the early milling, but Dundee made a strong finish and earned the judge's decision. The former had the better of four rounds, while Dundee won seven rounds, with four rounds even.

SPORTING SCRIBE IS POOR PICKER

All-Southern Prep Team Is Poorly Chosen; Glendale Eleven Suggested

By AL DIX
Of The Evening News Staff.

ALL-SOUTHERN PREP TEAM

Striff, Lincoln	L. end
Redfern, Manl. Arts	L. tackle
Penn, Long Beach	L. guard
Stever, Manl. Arts	Center
Cody, Poly High	R. guard
Merrill, S. Monica	R. tackle
Horri, Glendale	R. end
Janicki, Los Angeles	Quarter
Drury, Long Beach	R. half
Hill, Long Beach (C)	L. half
H. Elliott, Glendale	Full

We pass this selection on to you for your approval. If it doesn't meet with your approval, and of course it will not, blame Norman Hartford, a Los Angeles sport writer, not us.

Hartford very wisely denies that he had anything to do with the selection of the all-prep team, claiming that the telephone operator, the office boy, and the assistant circulation manager had cooked it up. When the copy reader saw it he blue penciled what he did not like, so here we have the finished team.

Long Beach has three candidates and Glendale two, Horii at right and Howard Elliott at full back. Manual Arts has placed two men and Lincoln, Santa Monica and Poly High one each.

Drury's Poor Showing

We certainly do not agree with placing Drury of Long Beach on the team. For such a highly touted prep star we consider his showing in the Glendale and Bakersfield games very disappointing. His weight toook him through the Glendale line for a time, but in the last three quarters he was smeared time after time. In the Bakersfield game he failed to show his expected form. As a matter of fact, we do not agree with several of his selections. In our humble opinion, the following team would be entirely representative of the best material to be found in Southern California football ranks:

Phillips, Glendale, left guard.
Zaun, Glendale, center.
Brucker, Glendale, right guard.
West or Dotson, Glendale, right tackle.
Horii, Glendale, right end.
Elliott, Glendale, quarter.
Walton, Glendale, right half.
H. Elliott, Glendale full back.

Real Glendale Team

Now, as the critics says, here we have a strong team with great driving power, speed in the open and weight for the line, evenly balanced, with West, a natural born leader, for the captain.

We could go on indefinitely taking each individual player, and stating his special qualifications for the position for which he has been chosen, but what's the use?

This is a Glendale paper and the team picked is a Glendale team, so again, what's the use?

FOR NEW DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Creation of a department of education in the cabinet is proposed in a bill to be introduced in the Senate by Senator Sterling, Republican, of South Dakota.

Hoppe Has Lead In Billiard Contest

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Willie Hoppe required but five innings to tick off his part of the entertainment in the first block of 500 of his 1500-point match with Welker Cochran for the world's 18.2 billiard championship last night. He will have a 297-point jump on the Californian when the second block starts.

While Hoppe averaged an even hundred, Cochran, slower in getting under way, was counting 40 3-5 per inning.

An initial run of 150 and the expected Hoppe coinage of an opponent's error were the evening's turning points. He was playing regulation Hoppe billiards, and the crowd which filled Auditorium hall's orchestra seats was treated to brilliancy deftly mingled with conservatism.

There was enough open table cue work to satisfy the spectators. Particularly early in the match, while he was getting the speed of the new cloth and unlimering his stroking arm, Hoppe unloosed good open shots. He made forty four-length-of-the-table drives.

The turn came in the fourth inning after Cochran ran 74 with almost every variety of shot, and seemed about to narrow the margin between him and Hoppe. Then he blew a simple short follow close to the rail, leaving the balls slightly grouped, and on this bobble Hoppe rode most of the way to the first 500 mark. He ran 211 from this set-up.

Rickard Refuses to Stage Gibbons Bout

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Jack Dempsey may have planned three big fights for next year—with Luis Firpo, Harry Wills and Tom Gibbons—but he will have to get some other promoter than Tex Rickard to stage the bout with the St. Paul boxer.

The impresario is only interested in promoting bouts between the champion and Firpo or Wills. Tex believes that a bout between Dempsey and Gibbons would not draw in this part of the country, despite the fact that the St. Paul wonder went the limit with Jack at Shelby.

After a Firpo encounter Rickard plans to match the champion, providing he again defeats the Latin fighter, with Harry Wills, and have the race question decided in the ring once and for all.

Gibbons' friends are peeved over Rickard's action in washing his hands of any interest in a fight between the champion and the middle western fighter, and are trying to interest other promoters to stage such an encounter. They point out that their man made a better showing against Dempsey than Firpo did, and declare that Firpo is being built up for a second encounter with the champion.

Camp, whose son is in the Mexican capital. According to Judge Camp, Obregon has issued the order in order that the Americans may avoid the danger of running into battling armies. His information was received when he failed to hear from him son, W. R. Camp.

FAST BOUTS FOR NEW YEAR'S DAY

M'Lean and Griffin May Be In Main Event at Big Matinee Here

Although Matchmarker Tom Kennedy, of Hollywood, who is in charge of the party to be staged by the Glendale Post of the American Legion at the new ball park, on San Fernando road, New Year's afternoon, has not made his card public, those on the inside state that his headliner will be a return match between Stewart McLean of Minnesota and Dandy Dick Griffin of Texas. These two boys fought the windup at the last Hollywood show and put a fine battle, with the Minnesota man getting the decision at the finish. Many thought it should have been a draw, so a return fight between these two would draw a big flock of fans from the movie colony and Vernon.

Grant Leischner, one of the owners of the Glendale franchise in the Triple A league, who has been actively in charge of the park during its construction, stated Sunday that arrangements had been completed for the seating arrangements. The ring will be constructed near the home plate, and the wire screen will be taken away from the grand stand. The ring of seats will be erected across the pitcher's box. The park when arranged this way, will have a seating capacity of 7,500.

To Bring Own Staff

The Legion members, while standing sponsor for the affair, have turned over the management his own staff with him, assuring to Tom Kennedy, who will bring the smooth operation of the entire machine. George Clark will do the refereeing, Dan Toby the announcing and Billy Coe the timekeeping, the same as at Vernon and Hollywood.

It will be by far the biggest fight event ever attempted in this city, and visitors from all over Southern California, attracted to Pasadena by the Tournament of Roses parade in the forenoon, are expected to attend. The show will start at 2:30 o'clock. The complete card will be announced tomorrow or Wednesday.

Here's an odd sidelight on the hitting records of the American League batters last season: Harry Heilman led the league in batting and Babe Ruth led in home runs and runs scored. But Tris Speaker stopped the Detroit swat star in driving in runs and equaled Ruth's mark. Babe and Tris each pushed 130 runs across the pan with their trusty willows.

Of course, one reason for Spake's great showing was the surprising number of doubles he collected. These swats scored some runners that would only have reached third possibly on singles. Spoke, however, always has been a "money hitter"—an adept at getting hits when hits are needed most.

Speaking of "money players," the 1923 season probably saw the passing of one of the greatest sure-fire players in the game—Larry Gardner.

The veteran Boston and Cleveland third baseman ranked with Speaker, Jack Barry, Eddie Collins and a few others in that respect. These players all have shown that rare habit of playing their best ball in crises. The hotter the campaign the steadier this type can play. Also they seem to carry the winning habit with them wherever they go.

Barry played in something like six world's series. Collins played with the famous old Athletic machine and then proved the mainspring of the machine that won the pennant for Chicago in 1917 and 1919.

Speaker, after tasting world's series fame in Boston, moved to Cleveland and forthwith became the king pin there. He led the American League in batting right off the reel, and then, taking over the managerial reins, led the team to its first pennant.

Gardner, a member of the Red Sox pennant aggregation, was obtained by Speaker to fill a gap at third that had not been filled properly since Tuck Turner was at his best. Gardner, called through in Beantown, was one of the main cogs in the machine that gave Cleveland its pennant. He not only played a brilliant game at third, but became the idol of the fans through his ability to hit in the pinches. In addition to these things he was a member of Speaker's board of strategy.

The state athletic commission of Pennsylvania has refused to grant Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, permission to box in that state. The commish decided Johnson's age should bar him. Which is treating Johnson kindly.

Chicago University literary magazine, "The Circle," in an editorial condemns college football. Calls it "a menace to cultural education and general physical development in American universities. Maybe so. But Michigan and Illinois don't feel that way about it.

What manner of champion is this Johnny Dundee, holder of the featherweight championship? Has fought three times since he won the crown from the courageous Eugene Criqui. And each time he has been defeated. Luckily for Jonathan, they were not decision bouts.

Kid Wagner, Al Shubert and Sid Barbarian are the three who boast of victories over Dundee.

The unfortunate part of it, for Dundee, is that he won the title too late. He was on the edge of the stairway down to the land of never-come-back when he finally got a chance at the title. It was only a shadow of the real Dundee who won the coveted honor.

FIGHT RESULTS

AT NEW YORK—Johnny Dundee, featherweight champion, won decision and junior lightweight title from Jack Bernstein, Yonkers, 15 rounds. Sammy Mandell, Rockford, Ill., and Sid Terris, New York, fought ten round draw; Kid Sullivan, Brooklyn, stopped Babe Herman, California, in eighth round.

AT OMAHA—Morris Schlaifer, Omaha, won decision over Panama Joe Gans, negro welterweight, ten rounds.

AT NEW ORLEANS—Eddie Anderson, Chicago, drew with Bill Kennedy, New Orleans bantam, fifteen rounds.

AT EAST CHICAGO—Ernie Goozeman knocked out Johnny Murphy, second round. Alex Trambitas defeated Jimmy Gorey, ten rounds. Patsy Roche beat Eddie Welch, ten rounds.

AT SALT LAKE CITY—Spud Meyers drew with Frankie Darren fifteen rounds.

AT LOUISVILLE—Eddie Dyer, Terre Haute, defeated Joe Ritchie, Philadelphia, ten rounds; Jackie Dugan, Louisville, beat Chick Kansas, Philadelphia, ten rounds.

AT COLUMBUS—Lou Bloom, Columbus, defeated "Bad News" Taylor, Philadelphia, eight rounds.

AT CINCINNATI—Joe Anderson, Covington, Ky., had the edge over Bobby Bridges, Indianapolis, in every one of ten rounds.

AT HARRISBURG — Tommy Murray of Philadelphia won the decision over Len Brennan of Lancaster, Pa., ten rounds.

Charred Bodies Taken From Burning Structure at Houston, Texas

HOUSTON, Texas, Dec. 18.—Three unrecognizable, charred bodies were taken by firemen from the flaming Capitol hotel building while several streams of water were being poured on the burning structure.

Firemen were making a desperate effort to make a search of the burning structure to determine if any other bodies are there.

The blaze broke out in the Capitol hotel building at 6 o'clock this morning. As many guests were asleep in their rooms at that hour, it is not known how many persons have been unaccounted for. Two adjoining buildings were burned. The Capitol hotel site is in the Munn block in the heart of the business district.

PLEA FOR PARDONS

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 18.—Request that Christmas pardons be issued to Tom Mooney and Warren K. Billings and ninety-seven other union men confined in California prisons was made of Governor Richardson today in a telegram received from Harry Feinberg, secretary of the general defense committee at Chicago.

The telegram stated that the men were imprisoned for "exercising their constitutional rights to belong to a labor organization," and said in view of President Coolidge's action in releasing all federal I. W. W. prisoners, Governor Richardson should pardon the state prisoners.

M'ADOO FORMALLY ENTERS RUNNING

Tosses Hat In Ring In Wire To Democratic Leader; Fight Is Launched

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18.—William Gibbs McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, war-time director of railroads and son-inlaw of former President Woodrow Wilson, today was an avowed candidate for the presidential nomination on the Democratic ticket. McAdoo formally tossed his hat into the ring in a telegram to W. W. Howes, Democratic state chairman at Pierre, S. D., in which he said:

"Having filed my formal acceptance of the platform adopted by the Democratic proposal convention, as required by South Dakota law, I desire again to express my appreciation of the honor conferred upon me by the convention and to say that I am willing to fight with and for the people of South Dakota in support of the progressive principles espoused by the convention. He shall get no relief from the burdens now oppressing us nor shall we progresss in any direction through the Republican policies of standstillism and wistful wishing for these problems to solve themselves. The Democratic party stands for progress and popular rights. It welcomes the opportunity to do battle for them."

CAUGHT AFTER FIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18.—Escaping from Ventura authorities, shortly after midnight and successfully eluding officers at San Fernando, who were on the lookout for them, three Mexicans, said to be members of a notorious automobile stealing gang, were captured early today by Los Angeles deputy sheriffs near San Fernando after a running gun battle of several miles.

The Mexicans, Jack Morrelo, Raymond Sancho and Jose Garcia are held at the county jail pending word from Ventura.

Thirty Planes in Flight
Local Aviators Like Sport
California Pays Dividends
Better Signaling System

By Gil A. Cowan

Weekly motor races on the new Los Angeles track will make ordinary the speed events which heretofore have lured thousands of automobile fans to the ringside of the castor oil burners.

Of more than local interest, however, are the plans of the transcontinental military flight of thirty planes which is scheduled for the coming springtime.

According to advance notices, the flight, when completed, should prove one of the outstanding achievements in the world of aeronautics. Practically every state in the union will be touched by the various groups of flyers and the telegraphic news accounts of their exploits will be keenly watched by many Glendale aviation enthusiasts.

Almost any day the people here see some of our own citizens circling about Mount Verdugo, enjoying the ozone in altitudes which are seldom reached by ordinary mortals.

Flying is especially attractive here where the mountains protect the pilots from the danger of disastrous air currents. Yet it will likely be another decade before Glendale will have to hire a traffic cop to chase speeders coming in from San Francisco or Fresno.

This comment is being written in Fresno, home of the raisin. But the San Joaquin valley is not alone grape land. It is said that anything under the sun can be successfully produced in California's great market basket. We believe it.

That is why the writer is enthusiastic about the "back to the land" conference now being called by the California Real Estate association. One of these conferences is being held in Riverside today.

It would well repay Southern California to promote all of California, for the prosperity of each section is reflected in the other. Fresno and surrounding valley towns are a good field for Los Angeles wholesalers and manufacturers, particularly supplying the needs of the farmers.

But more farmers are necessary for more business. Interest your eastern friends in interior California. It will pay a big dividend. And do not tell them of the fruit alone. Mention the fact that dairying, stockraising, yes, straight farming, are good propositions for those who are able to finance their efforts.

From New York recently came the dispatch that "mothers-in-law" are the "home breakers" in America. That's nothing, when one considers China. The grandmothers rule the homes there with a high hand. But, to revert to the New York dispatch, it adds:

Fathers-in-law, according to the officials, are harmless, rarely causing marital difficulties.

The investigating society explained:

"There are three reasons for this mother-in-law complex, according to our statistics.

"First, no mother thinks any other woman's child is good enough for her own; second, a mother frequently sees in the marriage of her child, the thwarting of her plans and ambitions; third, where the boy or girl has been a wage earner the mother dislikes sharing her accustomed income with another."

Closed cars—coupes and sedans—are proving popular with the motorists of Southern California at this season of the year.

Particularly for those who are traveling the glass-enclosed automobile is a friend indeed, when the evening winds from the ocean blow, as a poet would put it.

For instance, if you were traveling the San Joaquin valley, where the temperature drops to freezing point, the closed car is like a parlor view of the passing landscape.

However, we do wish that manufacturers would invent a practical signaling system for the closed car. Unable to use the Yiddish code with windows closed, a driver of "the rear car" has to be a better mind reader than Ed Wynne, who admits he is "the perfect fool" when it comes to that kind of stuff.

All of which reminds us of an allegedly funny story of an elderly Irish woman who visited New York city and was being taken through traffic by one of the adroit drivers of "the taxless crabs," as she related the incident.

"Faith, he kept putting his hands out every time we took a turn and finally me Irish got the best o' me. So I whanged him over the head with my umbrella, not having a shillalah handy, and I says to him, says I, 'Young man mind your own business and I will tell you when it starts raining.'

MYSTERY NOT SOLVED

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 18.—Sheriff's deputies today continued investigation of the probable murder on the Columbia River highway of a young workman so far unidentified, whose body was found Sunday afternoon lying in the brush one mile east of Warrenton, Ore. The man had been shot in the head with an automatic pistol and all marks of identification removed from his clothing. Robbery is believed to have been the motive for the crime.

zation presented him with a huge bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Presents Mother

Mr. Grumbling's response and greeting to the commandery as eminent commander, was most gracious and concluded very beautifully with the presentation of his mother, Mrs. Sarah T. Grumbling, and Benjamin Pearson of Los Angeles, superintendent of the Southern California Edison company, a lifelong friend.

Another feature of the latter part of the evening was the presentation to Dr. Hogue of the past commander's jewel by Eminent Sir Mattison B. Jones, past commander. Mr. Jones' address of presentation was a flow of eloquence and wit and assisted by other past commanders much comedy at Dr. Hogue's expense preceded the formal presentation.

Among the special guests were James W. Wilson, eminent commander of the Hollywood commandery, and E. Alexander Hyer of Long Beach. Mr. Wilson occupied a place in the east and Mr. Hyer presided at the piano during the declaration of installation by Installing Marshal Moore.

An impressive part of the evening's program was a brief tribute to the memory of the late Charles H. Ravenscroft, paid by Clem L. V. Moore.

Entertainment features were a 'cello solo by Herbert E. Baines, accompanied by Mrs. Baines; vocal solos by Mrs. P. Markum Custer, accompanied by Mrs. Baines; "Balloon Dance" by Blossom Moore, "Daughter of the Commandery," and readings by Miss Kathryn Garnett.

The final event was the singing of "America" by the company, led by Francis J. W. Henry.

ELKS FROLIC IN CHRISTMAS JINKS

Boxing Bouts and Vaudeville Feature Program Drawn Up By Committee

Members of Glendale Lodge No. 1289, B. P. E. Elks, made merry at the annual Christmas Jinks at the club house on East Colorado street with a fine program of entertainment provided by Ray Galvin and Harry McCartney.

After a short business session of the lodge the doors were thrown open and between five and six hundred members packed the lodge room for six boxing bouts, with vaudeville numbers sandwiched in between. Several of the bouts were of high calibre, the wind-up between Bud Forester and a sailor whose name was unheard in the uproar being one of the best ever witnessed in Glendale. The fight was stopped in the third round with Forester getting the decision. This was a real fight, entirely different from the usual run of these affairs staged at club entertainments.

Vaudeville Show

The crowd then adjourned to the supper table, where several performers from the Orpheum in Los Angeles entertained during the cafeteria style lunch, served by the lodge feed committee.

During the evening over $200 was pitched into the ring for the Christmas fund, as the result of an appeal by Exalted Ruler James A. Apffel, who also announced that the next meeting would be held on January 7, 1924, when Grand Exalted Ruler James G. McFarland, of Watertown, South Dakota, would be present.

An especially pleasing feature of the evening's program was the number furnished by Brother Frank Maroida, of Honolulu lodge. He gave three piano monologues in very pleasing style.

Glendale lodge will enter a float in the Elks' division of the Tournament of Roses parade at Pasadena, New Years' day. Brother L. W. Chobe has consented to design the float, it was announced last night.

Scout Leaders Hold La Crescenta Meet

The A. C. Cox home in La Crescenta was the scene last night of the regular meeting and conference of Boy Scout leaders of the Verdugo Hills council.

Ben Robison, president of this organization of leaders, presided and after the business had been disposed with, there were several informal talks on Scout work.

Scoutmaster W. L. Walker of Troop 3, talked on "Troop Programs;" Scoutmaster H. B. Lockwood of Troop 4, presented four new Scout games; Scoutmaster C. W. Angier of Troop 1 of La Crescenta, talked on "Patrol Organization in the Troops;" Scout Executive H. R. Cheesman concluded the conference with a talk on "Troop Administration."

Later the company gathered about the big stone fireplace and enjoyed refreshments served by Mesdames Cox, Angier and Robison.

Recognition Refused To Soviet Government

the committee, are opposed to delay in considering the bonus and gave notice they would move at the meeting today to take up at once the bonus bill.

Chairman Green thereupon set aside the committee call, and held informal conferences with his Republican colleagues to win support for the committee legislative program. It was announced there would be a meeting of the committee tomorrow.

Recognition of Russia Refused By United States

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Sharp rejection, expressed in the most brief, most concise way possible, today met soviet Russia's new bid for American recognition.

Secretary of State Hughes instructed the American consul at Reval to inform the soviet authorities at Moscow that the note from M. Tchitcherin, the soviet foreign minister, received at the White House yesterday, does not offer any basis for negotiation, so far as the United States is concerned.

Doesn't Waste Words

Secretary Hughes' rejection of the soviet's offer was terse almost to the point of being brusque. It declared in effect that, before there can be any conferences between the two governments, the soviet must demonstrate their good faith and good intent by restoring American property confiscated during the revolutions, acknowledge their debts, and cease their propagandizing against American institutions.

He denied specifically that the United States is in any way indebted to Russia, thus disposing of the "reciprocal adjustment of debts" suggestion made by the soviet foreign minister in his note to President Coolidge yesterday.

Fruitless Trip for State Game Warden

REDDING, Dec. 18.—G. Laws, deputy fish and game commissioner for Shasta county, returned from a trip of 120 miles over almost inaccessible trails in pursuit of a mysterious foreigner said to be trapping without a license, and returned without his man.

The commissioner came upon a Japanese in the vicinity of Willowwood, encamped in a rough shack. He proved to be a student at the University of California, and not only was equipped with the $25 hunting license required from foreigners but he had the additional license that entitled him to engage in trapping.

The Nipponese gave his name as Henry T. Tanka and said his expenses were being paid by the Imperial Japanese government.

FEDERAL RETIREMENT

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 18.—General retirement of Mexican federal troops from the states of Guanajuato, San Luis Potosi and Tamaulipas is under way today, as result of orders by President Obregon, issued late last night, according to a report here this afternoon to F. M. Alvarez, from headquarters of Odolfo de la Huerta.

Alvarez was Mexican consul here until last week when he repudiated the Obregon government and swore allegiance to the revolutionary movement in Mexico, headed by De La Huerta.

COOLIDGE SEEKS ACTION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—President Coolidge is still desirous of the Senate ratifying the Mexican claims conventions at once, despite the revolution in Mexico, it was announced at the White House. It is regarded as unlikely, however, that the Senate will take any action until the trend and scope of the new troubles below the Rio Grande can be ascertained.

LAST SPRINT IN CAMPAIGN OPENS

Two More Working Days Left Before Prize List Is Named By Judges

By J. A. MALCOLM
Salesmanship Club Manager

Rushing through the last few days of the big salesmanship campaign, the club members are putting forth greater efforts than ever before as they realize that a very few subscriptions may make a lot of difference in the prizes that they will win when the final counting has been made. The campaign has now come to a question of a very few days. Just two more after today. Two days is not a verf long time, and yet time enough for some one to secure enough subscriptions to keep them in line for one of the grand captal prizes or else lose out at the last moment and win one of the smaller prizes. Soon it will be a question of hours and then minutes and then the end.

If you wish to be a big prize winner you must make the hours from now until Thursday night reap a golden harvest in subscriptions for you. Fill every possible moment with good hard work and don't overlook a single one of your friends and don't forget those who have promised to subscribe later. Many of the club members have been promised subscriptions but have not secured them as yet, owing to the fact tnat they have not called on the people again. This is a very serious mistake, and everyone should be sure to see those who have promised and be sure and get their subscriptions, for the ones that have been promised may be the very subscriptions that will put you over the top. There are hundreds of subscriptions that can and will be secured before the final tap of the bell, Thursday night, and if you want to win big you must get your share of them.

Don't forget that this campaign will close Thursday night, December 20, at 8 o'clock, aod all subscriptions and credits must be in the ballot box at that time to be counted. Not one minute after 8, but at 8 o'clock sharp, the campaign will close and the final counting of the ballots will take place. All club members have been warned time and again that the final hour is 8, and should any club member fail to have his subscriptions in the ballot box by that time they will be the loser, for this campaign will positively close at 8 o'clock and there will not be any extensions whatsoever for any one. Bear this in mind and plan your work accordingly. If you wish to make sure, the best way would be to deposit your collections in the ballot box in the afternoon of Thursday, December 20, and then if you secure more subscriptions later you can make another deposit that night.

Remember Thursday, December 20, is the day and 8 p. m. is the final hour.

Discharge of Waste in Business District Proves Demand for Sewer System

Does Glendale need a sanitary sewer system? A very emphatic answer may be obtained by the skeptical, to the first question, by a trip to Colorado street one-half block west of Brand boulevard—just a little over two blocks from Broadway and Brand—the very heart of the city of Glendale. However, those taking such a trip should be forewarned and take the proverbial clothes-pin with them, for the sweet aroma of raw sewage fills the air in that section of town.

A child might exclaim on arriving at the above mentioned destination—"Oh, see the pretty spring," but instead of the flow of water being a clear, sparkling and healthy water as one would find in a shady nook somewhere in the mountains, the water bubbling up through a hole in the pavement and flowing down the street gutter, is the overflow from a battery of cesspools located at that point. Instead of being a clear, sparkling, healthy water, it is a muddy, foul-smelling water carrying the wastes of a section of the city, and is a positive menace to the health of those who have to be around it in their daily work.

People are asking why the city does not stop that overflow. The city has attempted to stop this disagreeable nuisance. The first of the year City Engineer Dupuy made a thorough investigation of the area contributing to these cesspools, in an attempt to lengthen the life of the cesspools by stopping the inflow of grease and oil.

In January, 1923, all of the cesspools and septic tanks were cleaned with a fire hose and pumped out for the first time, at a cost of $422.31. A second cleaning was made in September of this year at a cost of $687.46. The battery of cesspools on Colorado, west of Brand boulevard, the lowest in the short sewer system on the west side of Brand and the one that is overflowing at the present time, was pumped out and cleaned in October last, costing $518.40. This same battery was pumped down again the next month and a new cesspool installed forty feet deep and four feet in diameter at a total cost of $504.91. This new cesspool filled up within a week, showing that the ground around the present cesspools was saturated with the sewage flowing out from the other cesspools and was refusing to take any more wastes.

Less than half of the sewage from the section covered by the sewer system west of Brand, which includes the territory from Brand to Orange, and from Colorado to Wilson, flows into these cesspools. Approximately $1,600 has been spent in the last year, $1,023.31 of which was spent in the last two months in a vain attempt to dispose of less than half of the wastes from three blocks. This is over and above the initial cost of the project.

This condition is just an indication—just a small warning—of the problem that the city of Glendale will have to face in the near future. The time is not so very far distant when the strata of sand and gravel underlying the city, which has, up to the present time, been so readily disposing of the wastes (or in other words, the sewage of the city), will become clogged, as has already happened at the cesspools on Colorado near Brand boulevard, and in numerous backyards of private dwellings throughout the city.

Glendale has been brought face to face with the problem which other towns, not so favored, have had to face long before they reach the size of Glendale—and that is a permanent disposal of the wastes of the city. This is not a mythical problem, but a real one—as many people are beginning to realize—and one that must be met if a city is to grow and prosper.

Glendale proudly points to the slogan—"THE FASTEST GROWING CITY IN AMERICA." However, there is another record which Glendale must admit, but which would mar the attractiveness of a now beautiful city, and which, if generally known, would curtail this proud boast. Stop and imagine this statement as Glendale's slogan—"THE LARGEST CITY IN AMERICA WITHOUT SANITARY SEWERS."

Use Clothes Wringer to Extract Evidence

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 18.—Employment of the ordinary clothes wringer—and not in jest—to aid local prohibition authorities in "drying up" the city today was being seriously considered by C. A. Vassar, chief of police.

The proposed method of extracting rum was suggested by Joseph Downs and William McMullen, detectives, after they had completed the tiresome process of wringing by hand nearly two pints of "corn" whiskey from a woolen blanket.

When the detectives went to the home of Mrs. Mary Keirn to search for alcoholic beverages, they peeked through a window and saw the woman empty the contents of a gallon coffee pot on the blanket.

Chemists, who tested the result of the wringing process for alcohol, after Mrs. Keirn denied the liquor contained alcohol, declared a high percentage of "kick" was present, and that if the woman were telling the truth then the blanket must have belonged to a mule.

FAMILY IS UNITED AFTER 31 YEARS

Mrs. Mary R. McGowan, Age 87, Made Very Happy By Children's Presence

The Angel of Death, hovering over the residence of I. M. Randolph, 518 North Jackson street, Glendale, has brought together for the first time for thirty-one years the family of Mrs. Mary R. McGowan, Mrs. Randolph's mother, and, as if through the added strength of the presence of the four stalwart sons, the mysterious messenger has seemingly been frightened away and today Mrs. McGowan is brighter than for several days past and is able to recognize the members of her family.

Mrs. McGowan, who is 87 years of age, is of that hardy Tennessee stock that played such a large part in the development of the country west of the Mississippi river. The McGowans were early settlers in Tama county, Iowa, famous as the home of "Tama Jim" Wilson, for many years secretary of agriculture.

Raise Nine Children

There they reared to manhood and womanhood a family of nine children. Six of these children are gathered in Glendale today from different localities in the United States where they chose to make their home after leaving the family home.

They are William J. McGowan, retired, of Vashon, Wash.; Ed H. McGowan, owner of a large ranch and implement store in Hay Springs, Neb.; Ira O. McGowan, rancher, of Miller, S. D.; S. N. McGowan, banker, of Fort Dodge, Iowa; Mrs. J. T. Lovell of Long Beach and Mrs. I. M. Randolph of Glendale, at whose home they are gathered.

Joyous Reunion

Although the children have been home at separate times, this is the first time in over three decades that they have all been together, and it is a joyous occasion, although saddened by the serious illness of their mother.

Mrs. McGowan has made her home in Glendale with her daughter for seventeen years, since the death of her husband, and has many friends here who join with her family in hoping for her speedy and complete recovery.

Purse Snatcher Gets $2 and P. E. Tickets

A purse containing $2 in currency and some Pacific Electric railway tickets was snatched from her hand at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, according to a report made to the police by Mrs. A. M. Lillie, 1821 Gardena avenue.

She was walking down the street near her home when the man suddenly appeared out of the gloom. She was able to give the police a good description of her assailant.

CHANGE TIME OF C. OF C. MEETING

Holiday Dates Cause Board To Alter Schedules For Near Future

Meeting for the last time at night until the date of the annual gathering some time in January, the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce held a brief session last night, the time being devoted to reading of the minutes, committee reports and reading of communications.

Due to the fact that the next two meeting dates fall on holidays, Christmas and New Year's day, and the third date on January 8, which is scheduled for the sewer bond election, the board decided to hold the sessions at noon on Monday of each week during this period. It was tentatively decided that the annual meeting set for January 15 will be postponed to another date, probably a week later, on account of the Glendale Realty Board's annual meeting having been scheduled for the same date. Since several state and national officials have made plans to attend the realty meeting, the meeting could not be postponed, according to a communication read from Peter Hanson, president of the board.

In the absence of President W. E. Hewitt and Secretary E. F. Sanders, First Vice-President D. H. Smith presided at the meeting last night. G. Clay Goodloe, assistant secretary, officiated for Mr. Sanders in reading the minutes of the last meeting.

Smith Presides

Reporting for the football banquet committee, C. W. Ingledue, chairman, told of arrangements made with women of the First Christian church to serve a turkey dinner for Glendale's three football teams Thursday night, when they will be guests of the Chamber of Commerce and members of the various service clubs of the city. Thirty-two high school girls will serve the dinner, while eight girls will be in charge of decorations.

Tickets for the banquet are being distributed at the Chamber of Commerce at $1 each. The directors issued an appeal last night for the business men of Glendale to get behind this entertainment and show their appreciation to the boys "who have done more for Glendale in the way of advertising and boosting than any other one thing in the history of the city." Arrangements are being made for 300 covers.

Mr. Ingledue also reported on the arrangements made for the Glendale float to be entered in the parade at the Pasadena Tournament of Roses on New Year's day. Chairman Smith appointed a committee to co-operate with the float committee, of which Mr. Ingledue is chairman, in raising funds for the float. Mr. Hewitt, W. L. Twining and V. M. Hollister were named to serve on this committee.

George B. Karr, a director in the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the San Fernando valley, and a director in the local chamber, urged all who could do so to attend the annual meeting of the associated chambers at Girard tonight. It is to be the annual Hi Jinks meeting.

The board voted to grant the request of officials of the Rock Island railroad that the chamber furnish 500 booklets on Glendale, "The Fastest Growing City in America," to be placed on trains of that road.

Second national honors were awarded Miss Henrietta M. Hornberger, a teacher in Pueblo, Colo., schools.

Laundry Ticket Nominee Refutes Foe's Claims of His Lowbrow Tendencies

By F. A. GRAHAM
Of The Evening News Staff.

TUJUNGA, Dec. 18.—"The Tujunga river confines itself to its own limitations, thereby setting an example that should be followed by Professor Zantippe and all other would-be politicians."

With this opening shot, Hon. August September, inventor of the perpetual calendar and presidential nominee on the laundry ticket, launched into a speech today at a banquet given by the Millionaires of Happiness and Contentment club of Tujunga at the Cozy Cup Inn. The listeners, many of them champion speakers themselves, were hypnotized by the flood of oratorical splendor that poured from the speaker's lips. Mr. September's eloquence was dazzling and completely refuted claims made by rival candidates that he is a lowbrow. Nothing like it has ever been heard and all members of the club feel that their surplus of happiness has been materially increased by the experience.

Lambastes Rival

"When, in the course of inhuman political events, it becomes necessary to lambaste misguided persons who aspire to office for purely selfish reasons it behooves us to opticalize the resultant chaosity should these mercenary persons triumph. Here we have a party that thinks of nothing but food. I am speaking specicophically of the gastronosticus meal ticket party. Their leader, Professor Zantippe, is a political parasite and will stop at nothing to gain a meal ticket marked by an absence of charge. His false teeth go from rapture to rapture upon the mere mention of edifitious viands. And I may say that his intentions are equally as artificial as his bi-cuspids.

"Shall we stand by in our obstitution and conglomerize the masticosity? Will the peepul of this grandiloquent hemisphere need or unheed the signals of impending destitutionolity? What is the world coming to? I repeat, what is the world coming to? If, in your ignorosity of the magnolium factotus, you do not preconceive the significant loquaciousness of the sub-consciousity I will enlighten you. The world is coming to Tujunga."

Outburst of Cheers

An outburst of cheering interrupted the speaker at this point and for 72 minutes, Pacific standard time, he was unable to make himself heard. When the din had subsided and the window panes replaced, Mr. September continued:

"When our four fathers composed and autographed the Declapendence of Indignation where was the fifth? Out perfecting the organization of the laundry ticket. The laundry ticket has always been known as clean and wholesome.

"But look at what the conglomerous scumical elemenrosity of educationolity has precipitated upon the anti-confiscatery proboscuity of the dumbellian age! Look, I say, look! Some of you are not looking. With John Paul Hancock I say, 'give me liberty or give me a rich wife,' one of the either. Please pass the cigars again."

Girl Scouts to Give Old Christmas Play

Quaint tenth century costumes and traditional yuletide melodies will mark the Girl Scout charity entertainment Friday night, December 21, at the Knights of Columbus auditorium at 320 East Lomita avenue.

The girls of Troop Four, who are giving the benefit, will stage a three act play entitled "The Lost Prince," the plot being an old Christmas legend to which the girls have added many colorful touches. Costumes and scenery have been designed and built by the members of the troop.

A year ago the girls of Troop Four staged another Christmas play and their efforts met with such success that they are making it an annual affair, and one which enables them to have funds to devote to charity at the Christmas season.

Catharine Doll, who plays the queen's jester; Beatrice Smith, as the Princess Hilda, and Josephine Moore, as Queen Ermengarde, have put a great deal of hard work into the production as have all those who take part.

All Glendale people who are friends of Girl Scouts and their work are invited to attend the performance.

Etchings of Artist On Christmas Cards

The artistry of John W. Cotton, nationally known etcher and Glendale resident at 1202 West Colorado street, is to be brought to his many friends this Christmas by attractive greeting cards bearing reproductions of his etchings and aqua tints.

Mr. Cotton has received wide recognition for his work, and, since he has resided in Glendale, Glendalians and other Southern Californians have come to know and love his etchings, aqua tints and water colors. Honorable mention and other awards have been given him at various fairs and exhibits, and those who receive one of the holiday greetings from the hand of Mr. Cotton will indeed have a piece of art worth keeping.

Lovers of California will find a strong appeal in these greeting cards, for many of them are well-known California scenes. Some of them are "Pasadena Bridge," "Cabrillo Bridge" in Balboa park, San Diego, "Eucalypti" at Eagle Rock, "Capistrano," "The Yucca," "A Mountain Trail."

Others are "Birthplace of "Jeanne d'Arc," "The Waits," "Dutch Fish Boats," "Bookstalls in Paris," "Winter," "Chateau in France" and "Tranquility."

These greetings are among the features of the open house Mr. and Mrs. Cotton are holding every day this week at their studio home on East Colorado street.

BIGAMY, RAISINS, IN RUN OF NEWS

Papers Feature Stories Of Varied Phases In World Activities

By GIL A. COWAN
Special to The Evening News

FRESNO, Dec. 18.—News—what is it, where is it, and when, why and how?

As Fresno sees it, it may be found in the county courts, the industrial enterprises, or the homes.

For instance, one of the best stories of the last week was about Harry Racehorn, parole violator, who will again be doing time in San Quentin. Racehorn was liberated with the understanding that he pay alimony to his three bigamous wives. In obtaining employment he found that his penal servitude made it impossible to earn more than his keep. So he gave up the ghost of a chance to live without prison walls.

That was a story from the courts—and courts Glendale has not except for a very tame session of speeders before the police judge twice a week.

Raisins In China

Then in industrial enterprises, of which Glendale has a few, we find the Fresno Republican printing a story about Sun-Maid raisins that is well worthy of mention. The children in Cheking province, China, are replacing "pumpkin seed" as a confection with raisins! Two missionaries have reported this information, and no doubt they will have some raisins to distribute on Christmas day if the Sun-Maid shipment arrives in time.

In one of Fresno's homes there is a glad little boy, five thousand miles from the place of his birth this year. He is Ferdinand Manookian, age 11, an Armenian refugee, who is being cared for by his uncle here. Little Ferdinand is branded on each temple by the Arab tribe which rescued him following a massacre of his parents some years ago by the Turks. His parents were prosperous tradespeople who were the victims of the religious warfare of the Mohammedans.

Such is news as Fresno sees it.

Hunters Return With Geese, Duck Limits

Bringing back the limits of Brant geese and ducks, Jesse E. Smith, Ford dealer, 115 West Colorado street, and Wallace Tupper, 1401 East California avenue, Ford dealer at Montrose, returned this morning after a three-day hunting trip in the country around Sacramento and Colusa. They did most of their shooting at the Sportsmen's Outing club near Sacramento, where they reported that the ducks and geese were to be seen in thousands.

The arrival of the two hunters, with their trophies strung in bunches all over their car, attracted an immense amount of attention and envy from those who saw the load of geese and ducks.

TODAY—Strange Customs of Natives in British Cameroons; Whistler, Famous Painter, Knew Value of Publicity.

By DAVID M. CHURCH
For International News Service.

By CHARLES A. SMITH

LINCOLN, Dec. 18.—Interesting relics of Stone Age Africa have been discovered by F. W. H. Migeod, noted English explorer, in a journey through the British Cameroons, the large province on the eastern coast of Africa, part of which was ceded to Britain following the war.

In various parts of the province Migeod unearthed many paleolithic axe-heads and other weapons and implements, and found many traces of pre-historic civilization giving indications that man existed in Africa many thousands of years ago.

Migeod discovered many strange customs and practices existent among some of the savage tribes, and found that, contrary to the general belief, many of the tribes have very strict laws against inter-marriage and the practice of polygamy.

The Moen and Munshie tribes, who live south of the Benue river, practice a curious form of double marriage. When a male member of the tribe marries, his sister weds the brother of the bride. Should a sister be unavailable, he has to give equivalent service to his brother-in-law by working for him. The average of a sister is about three years of not very hard work, according to Migeod.

The Munshie laws against intermarriage are so strict that beside them the American laws of affinity are stark simplicity.

When a marriage is afoot a family council is convened, composed generally of elders with long memories, whose business is to see that no impediments of relationship exist between the intending bride and bridegroom.

These family confabs are often so lengthy and complicated and the impediments are so difficult to unravel and surmount that the meetings break up unsuccessful, says Migeod.

One tribe has traditional names for all twins, varying if they are both boys or girls or mixed. The natives claim these names were given them by God.

Another tribe buries its dead like the ancient Egyptians in a niche opening onto a shaft sunk in the ground. The bodies are protected with bamboos so that no earth may fall into the chamber and press on them, and then the shaft is filled up.

Whistler, famous American painter, whose pictures even now are bought eagerly by wealthy Americans for anything up to a hundred thousand dollars, apparently knew the value of publicity—even being his own press agent, according to a batch of seventy of the painter's most intimate letters shortly to be put up for auction.

In some of them he is revealed as an insatiable seeker after publicity, even when abroad writing to his secretary and asking him to insert paragraphs in the newspapers about his activities and doings.

Whistler is also revealed as being rather tight where the purse-strings were concerned. In a letter to a water company concerning water charges he is very indignant about an apparent overcharge, and winds up: "How the devil can they ask five dollars for water when I myself gave notice to the collector that the house was not inhabited months ago, and the man told me the tax after that would be a mere nothing?"

The letters are expected to fetch a high price, competition being very keen.

With the Women of Today

By MRS. LILIAN CAMPBELL

Miss Eleanor Poehler is the only woman to act as managing director of a radio broadcasting station in the United States, if not in the world. She is in charge of WLAG, the Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn., radio central, which is operated by the Cutting and Washington Radio corporation. This station has recently been selected by the United States Bureau of Standards for calibrating.

Miss Poehler is one of the leading soprano soloists of the west and one of the principals in musical education in Minnesota. She was first engaged as program director for the station, and in a year was made complete manager. She is also secretary of the organization of business men that subscribe to the WLAG's program with a view to making it a factor in community betterment.

Eight women will sit in the new British parliament, according to the recent election. Lady Astor, Mrs. Margaret Wintringham and Mrs. Margaret Philipson were re-elected. The Duchess of Athol, Conservative; Lady Terrington, Liberal, and Miss Susan Lawrence, Miss Margaret Bondfield and Miss Dorothea, Liberals, were all elected.

Miss Henrietta Szold, president of Hadassah, the women's Zionist organiaztion, is soon to leave New York for Palestine, where she will remain three months, representing her organization in the hospital and child welfare work, which the women Zionists have introduced into the country alike among the Christian, Arab and Jewish populations.

A recent war department order decrees the retirement of the khaki uniform with its trench mud associations and the return to pre-war styles of soldier millinery. This may be glad news for the female contingent, who are said to "dote on the military."

Beware of the over-friendly tradesmen, oh, ye young and inexperienced housewives. One newlywed wife became so confused at the attention of the neighborhood tradesmen who had "sized her up," that she gave three grocers promise of her exclusive trade in one afternoon and accepted "sample" gifts from them all. Now she is wondering how to get out of her predicament.

"The institution is an anachronism. It has outlived its usefulness. It must go. Rather the worst of private homes than the best of institutions." This has been the attitude lately of many social workers. The prison, reformatory, orphanage and children's home have all come under this ban.

Mrs. Augusta S. Page, superintendent of "Sheltering Arms," a home for boys and girls in New York, believes that what is needed is not so much to abolish the institution as to "uninstitutionalize it." "To do away with the dull, dreary monotony that permeates institutional life and to replace it with spontaneous recreation and a mental attitude that thinks in terms of the individual child rather than of the institution."

APRIL AND OCTOBER MARRIED

They Will Spend December Honeymooning

The luxurious home of Mrs. Susan Simpson Tucker and the way she and her youthful hubby, Burton Tucker, hope to spend much of their honeymoon.

JERSEY CITY, N. Y., Dec. 18.—"We are not in a class with locksmiths. Love can't laugh at us." So say officials of this fair city as they investigate the recent marriage of Burton S. Tucker, beardless youth of 16 from the rolling meadows of South Essex, Mass., and Mrs. Susan O. Simpson, wealthy Gloucester, Mass., woman of 50 summers and perhaps one less winter.

Meanwhile Tucker, as he puts a protecting arm around his plump mate, says that they will spend their honeymoon in her luxurious home in West Gloucester, Mass., law or no law. "We'll stick together to the end," he says.

"And I still have many years ahead of me," says his blushing bride, as the blushes extend down to her extra chin.

The couple were married in Union Hill, N. J. Officials allege, among other things, that the two failed to allow the necessary seventy-two hours to elapse between the issuance of the license and the ceremony. Also statements regarding the age of Tucker are being investigated.

Tucker is experiencing the thrills a real sheik should. He feels that his youth, his charm and his winning ways brought him his "jewel." Mrs. Tucker, old enough to be his mother and said by his mother to be his half-great aunt, feels that he is the one Cupid intended for her. And Cupid wasn't aided by her riches, the sporty car she owns, or the life of ease which Tucker knew awaited him, she says.

"He loves me and me alone," she says. And there is considerable of her to love. Nature has been generous to her in her fifty years. The only change since she became "fair, fat and forty" is in her age.

Love came to the couple after she took Tucker to New York to educate him and show him the big city. His education will continue, she says, until he is ready to take his place in the business world "with the other big men of the day."

And Tucker says that he is willing to learn.

"Why should I not marry her?" he asks with worldly wise manner of a man twice his age. "I love her. That love disregards age. To me she is as young and vivacious as any flapper could be."

And when he talks that way she nestles closely to him with girlish giggles.

But over their happiness hovers the shadow of the law—oft times a strict disciplinarian in love affairs. So, if the December winds fail to cool the ardor of this love of April for October "thirty days" of cell breezes may.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— BY HOWARD R. GARIS —

UNCLE WIGGILY GOES SKATING

Peetie Bow Wow, the little puppy dog, was running along the woodland path with a pair of roller skates slung over his shoulder The roller skates went clickety-clack and bingity-bang, swinging from the straps by which Peetie carried them.

"Hello, Peetie!" bleated Billie Wagtail, the goat boy, who was on his way to school. "Why don't you put your roller skates on your paws and skate with them instead of carrying them over your shoulder?" asked the goat boy.

"Cause I'm not going to use my skates," barked Peetie. I'm taking them to Uncle Wiggily."

"Taking them to Uncle Wiggily. What's the matter? Are they broken, and is Uncle Wiggily going to mend them?" Billie wanted to know.

Peetie shook his head.

"My skates aren't broken," he replied, "but I'm going to lend them to Uncle Wiggily.

"Why Uncle Wiggily doesn't want your roller skates," laughed Billie the goat. "Uncle Wiggily is too old to skate."

"He wasn't too old to slide down the hill in the tin dish pan yesterday," barked Peetie, "so I guess he isn't too old to roller skate."

"Well, maybe not too old," admitted Billie. "But what makes you think Uncle Wiggily wants your skates?"

"Well, it's getting near Christmas time" said Peetie, as he swung his skates to and fro, "and it's best to be kind and good to every one 'specially around Christmas."

"That's so!" bleated Billie. I never thought of that! Uncle Wiggily knows Santa Claus and he can tell him some of the things we want for Christmas." Then Billie started to run very fast.

"Where are you going?" barked Peetie after him.

"I'm going home and see if I can find something to lend to Uncle Wiggily before Christmas," answered the goat boy.

Peetie laughed and strolled along toward the rabbit gentleman's hollow stump bungalow. The roller skates slung over his back went clickity-clack and rackity-bunk.

"Hello Peetie!" greeted the rabbit gentleman as Peetie knocked at the hollow stump bungalow door. "Why aren't you at school?"

"I'm just going," barked the little puppy dog boy, "but I thought maybe you might like to take my roller skates. I won't need them while I'm in school, and I'd like for you to take them and go skating."

Uncle Wiggily looked at Peetie and then he looked at the roller skates. Then the bunny twinkled his pink nose and said:

"Oh, ho! I see!" Then he laughed and asked: "How many days is it beore Christmas Peetie?

The doggie boy counted on his paw nails and barked:

"Fourteen, counting today."

"Um! Very good!" chuckled the rabbit. All right Peetie, I'll take your roller skates for a while. Stop and get them on your way home from school."

"Thank you, I will," barked Peetie.

"Thank you!" laughed the bunny, as Peetie trotted on.

"Wiggy! You're not going to roller skate are you?"

Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy asked this question as she stood in the doorway. She had heard all that was said.

"Oh, I might try just a little skate," answered the bunny. "I used to skate very cleverly when I was a young rabbit chap. I dare say I haven't quite forgotten it all."

Nurse Jane shook her head as Uncle Wiggily made the skates a bit longer for his paws, and strapped them on. Then he began rolling down the front walk. All of a sudden, as Nurse Jane was watching from the window, she saw one of Uncle Wiggily's legs fly up in the air. The other leg stayed on the ground and, a moment later, that's where Uncle Wiggily was—sitting on the ground. He was shaken up and jiggled a bit but he didn't seem to mind.

"I guess I fell down," he laughed.

"I know you did!" said Nurse Jane.

"Well, I'll try it again," said the bunny. This time he went more slowly, but, all of a sudden both his feet seemed to slide out from beneath him, and down he fell again—ker floppo!

"I must hold on to something until I get used to them," said the rabbit. So he began skating by holding fast to the fence with his front paws. This time he did not fall.

"It is much easier now," said the bunny. "I think I can venture out on the sidewalk." Out on the sidewalk he went. He was just skating along nicely when, all of a sudden he heard a voice cry:

"I'm going to nibble your ears!" And out of the bushes popped the Bob Cat. Uncle Wiggily was so surprised that once again both his paws with the roller skates on, flew out from beneath him. And his paws and the roller skates banged the Bob Cat on his nose.

"Oh, wow! Double wow! Oh, this is too much!" howled the bad chap, and away he ran.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Wiggily as he arose. "It's a good thing Peetie let me take his roller skates. I must give him a penny for a lollypop. But I've had enough skating for a while."

Then the bunny took off the rollers for Peetie to use when he came home from school and the rabbit gentleman went over to see Grandpa Goosey Gander and tell him of the adventure.

And, if the rubber boots don't stay so late at the moving pictures that the umbrella has to go after them to take them home, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily on stilts.

From Evening News Files

The Goldfish restaurant has the distinction of having the first electric sign in Glendale.

The Odd Fellows of Glendale have plans out for an $8000 lodge home to be erected at the corner of Third and Isabel streets, directly east of the Seventh-day Adventist church.

For Sale, 25 acres opposite Verdugo park, on boulevard, pure mountain water; $15,000; consider some exchange.

Dinner Stories

The wandering knight of the road had, with true professional manner, called the lady of the house to the door, declares Judge. With the voice with a whine he pleaded:

"Will you please give a poor man a piece of cake, or pie, and perhaps a drink of wine?"

The matron looked upon him with rising wrath.

"Cake, or pie, and wine! It seems to me you are a high-toned beggar."

"As a rule, I am easily suited," replied the stranger, "but today is my birthday, and I would like to celebrate a little."

Mrs. Brown (buying a railway ticket)—What became of the ticket clerk who used to be at this window?

Ticket Clerk—He's in a lunatic asylum.

"You don't say so. What was the reason?"

"A shock."

"Shock, eh?"

"Yes, one day last week a woman came to his window, bought a ticket, paid for it and walked away without stopping to ask a string of questions."

Farington and his friends were precipitated into an argument by the statement of one of them that a Scotchman never gives a direct answer to a question, says the Chicago Literary Times. It resulted in a considerable wager to be settled by a test question put to a Scotchman. The question asked was: "Is the mail in?" The Scotchman's answer was: "Are you expecting some mail?"

WINTER COUGHS AND COLDS

With the changeable weather which we have at this season of the year coughs and colds are very prevalent. Be prepared for them. Have a bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND handy, and with the first sign of a cough or cold take a dose and prevent a serious ailment. FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND has been the standard family cough remedy for over 35 years, bringing prompt relief and when once used you will never be without it. Clean-Up Campaign.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18.—Approximately 200 men and women arrested over the week-end in a series of raids staged by the police, in an effort to rid the city of undesirables, were to be arraigned in police court today.

Many rooming houses and alleged bootleggers' establishments were raided. Some of the men arrested are said to have had concealed weapons in their possession.

Loves His Job.

PASADENA, Dec. 18.—For many years William Dunn of this city has been a butler, so long, in fact, that he thinks he will continue at his vocation, where he can be surrounded by "culture and refinement," instead of mingling with the boisterous mob. In spite of all this, Dunn has just fallen heir to $20,000 and there is a possibility that he may get more—perhaps millions.

Dunn is a butler in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Card. He has several wealthy aunts, and it was from one of them that he received the bequest. Dunn stated that he will continue to be a butler and that probably he will never marry.

Hunter Gets Transfer.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 18.—Orders have been received by Lieut. Commander Donald T. Hunter, one of the three naval officers convicted by court-martial of negligence in some degree as a result of the wrecking of seven destroyers at Point Honda the night of September 8, to report to the commanding officer of the U. S. S. Nevada.

The new orders relieve Commander Hunter from the status of arrest, he said, but added that he had received no information indicating that he has been exonerated by the navy department, where a review of the court-martial's findings is being made.

Blown Through Roof.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Dec. 18.—An investigation is under way here of the killing of J. J. McGuire, blacksmith, 75, who was blown through the roof of his home by a charge of dynamite placed beneath his bed by some unknown person. The explosion occurred at 3 o'clock in the morning when the victim was asleep. McGuire was recently released from the county jail after serving a thirty-day sentence on an assault charge.

Mayor Cryer Improved

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18.—Mayor George E. Cryer was today reported to be slowly recovering from the sudden attack of pneumonia which threatened his life Saturday night, according to reports from his physicians.

The mayor has been confined to his bed for the past week. At first his ailment was declared to be intestinal influenza, but Saturday night it was announced there were traces of pneumonia in the left lung. The mayor's physicians announced today that while the city's chief executive is very ill there is no cause for alarm.

To Be "Mothers"

BERKELEY, Dec. 18.—Upper class women at the University of California have agreed to "mother" 400 freshmen women expected to enroll for the spring semester, beginning January 14.

The new women students will be watched over by the upper class women until they have become acquainted. Mrs. W. W. Campbell, wife of the president of the university, will have a series of teas for the newcomers.

FOLEY PILLS BRING RESULTS

"FOLEY PILLS are the best I have tried. My kidneys work a lot better since I received your generous offer," writes John W. Brogan, Adams, Mass. FOLEY PILLS are a diuretic stimulant for the KIDNEYS and while being taken close attention should be paid to the diet. Avoid sweets, pastry, starchy foods, alcoholic drinks, tea and coffee. Drink plenty of good fresh water, and keep the body warmly clothed. Refuse substitutes. ARNOLD WILL BE REALTORS' GUEST

Industrial Expert to Speak At Weekly Luncheon of Glendale Board

The program for tomorrow's weekly meeting of the Glendale Realty board will include an address by A. G. Arnold, head of the industrial department of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, according to an announcement by W. L. Truitt, chairman of the program committee. Mr. Arnold is admitted to be one of the best informed men in the state on the industrial situation of Los Angeles and Southern California, and his address will, it is declared, give the members of the local board valuable information on the subject in which he has specialized for so long.

Mr. Arnold does not deliver addresses of this nature on many occasions, but, through his close personal friendship with J. M. Boland, Glendale realtor, he has agreed to come to Glendale tomorrow and talk before the board.

The luncheon will be held in the Egyptian Village.

Wolves Invade Farms Of Northern Portugal

LISBON, Dec. 18.—Attacks by wolves are becoming frequent in northern Portugal, and the inhabitants are becoming terror-stricken as a result.

Although it is early in the winter for such occurrences, the facts that much snow has fallen and the weather has been very cold are believed responsible for their fierce depredations.

A woman at Cela was hoeing in a field near her home when a large she-wolf attacked her. She endeavored to beat off the animal with her hoe, and a desperate fight followed. Neighbors came to her assistance and killed the animal.

Farmers in fields adjoining woods report similar experiences.

Find Ripe Cherries In December, Unusual

CORDELIA, Dec. 18.—Ripe cherries in December are to be found in this section.

Herman Clashoff has picked a box of the black Tartarian variety, fully matured, which were grown on his ranch in Green valley.

Orchardists attribute this unusual occurrence to the prolonged dry spell and sunny weather.

FINE RECORD IN SALE OF RANGES

Coker and Taylor Doing Large Business; 'Direct Action' Type Favored

Sale of a carload of ranges in the past ten days by Coker & Taylor, plumbers, 209 South Brand boulevard, is reported by O. J. Merrill, manager of this department, who states that this brings the total sold by this company in the past two and one-half years to 2,000, of which 1,500 have been new and 500 used.

By far the greater majority of new ranges sold have been the Lorain "direct action" type, Mr. Merrill states, adding that sales have been made not only in Glendale but all the contiguous territory, including Alhambra, Redondo, Burbank, Eagle Rock, South Pasadena and a number of other places.

"We have achieved this remarkable record," says Mr. Merrill, "by sticking to one line of goods, which we know to be superior."

Population of Indian is 315,-156,396.

Christian Endeavor Stages H. S. Program

The Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society's "High School Night," which was observed last Sunday night at the Glendale Presbyterian church, proved to be one of the most enthusiastic and best attended meetings of the year. There were 138 young people present.

Early in the evening a social and get-acquainted hour was held and refreshments were served, which was followed by the regular meeting with the leader, Miss Gertrude Heideman, in charge. The meeting was opened with prayer led by Graham Tinning, followed by an address of welcome by Daryle Parker and response by Ronald West, president of the high school student body.

The evening's entertainment included short talks as follows: "Spiritual Life of Our Society," Paul Edmonds, president of the Boys' League; "Social Life of Our Society," Mildred Sooy; "The Influence a Christian Should have in High School," Gwendolyn Warner, president of the Girls' League; "Alumni," John T. Jenkins; "A Christian in High School," Miss Maud E. Soper, member of high school faculty; "A Christian in Athletics," Howard Butterfield, member of high school faculty; "Christian Endeavor," Howard L. Brown, superintendent and ex-state president of the California C. E. Union; followed by the closing prayer by Miss Mildred Elliott, assistant superintendent. Musical numbers of the program included cornet solo by Ivan Dow and vocal solo by John T. Jenkins, accompanied by Keith Brooks, teacher of the men's Bible class.

Miscreant Pours Oil On Cat, Applies Fire

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 18.—Detective Tom Pearson is looking for a person who poured kerosene on a mongrel cat and after applying a match to it, turned it loose on Twenty-third street. The officer promises that full justice will be done.

Crazed with pain, the animal, like a blazing comet, dashed down the street after dark and finally attempting to assuage its pain by rolling on a lawn in front of 615 Twenty-third street. During its efforts it set the dry grass on fire. The tortured animal then rushed under a lumber pile in an alley, setting fire to it.

Neighbors subdued the fire, and the cat was caught. The detective relieved its sufferings with a bath of engine oil and took it to police headquarters, where chloroform ended its sufferings.

Meantime the entire police force is looking for the miscreant.

SPIRITUALITY VS MATERIALITY

REST IN TUBERCULOSIS

Yesterday we talked of the importance of fresh air in tuberculosis. Today we will talk about rest in tuberculosis. I quoted Pottenger and Webb and Ryder on fresh air, and today I will quote them on rest. I have had no experience in treating tuberculosis, so, with their permission, I shall quote authorities on the subject:

Pottenger says: "I would rather have my patients understand the importance of rest, and carry it out conscientiously during that period when it is indicated, than any other measure commonly employed in the treatment of tuberculosis.

"When tuberculosis is active it is my opinion that any patient will increase his chances of obtaining a favorable result by the employment of rest. Later there comes a time when exercise is indicated, at which time the patient's chances of being restored to health and strength demand its employment. It is necessary that the principle which governs the use of these two valuable remedies be understood by the patient.

"Energy is required for every act of life. It is necessary, if any individual would keep his body in a state of high resistance so as to be able to withstand disease, that he should provide for his body as much energy as is required by all the demands that are made upon it. When the body is in a state of health this is not difficult to do. . . . When the body is diseased, on the other hand, particularly if the disease is a chronic one, such as tuberculosis, and accompanied by toxins, then the nervous system is injured, and the body cells, which are presided over by it, are unable to act normally; consequently the body makes up its energy supply with difficulty. Therefore, an amount of exercise which would call for an energy output which could easily be met by the individual when in a state of health, is not compensated and the patient suffers. . . . If the disease is very active, exercise will increase the amount of toxins thrown into the blood stream, and this will reduce the appetite and interfere with the digestion and assimilation of food and prevent the building up of strength even though sufficient quantities of food may be consumed. . . .

"Cough is increased by exercise, and this of itself often calls upon the patient for an enormous amount of work, which causes exhaustion, and is accompanied by an enormous increase of pulmonary ventilation and a much accelerated heart action. Cough, if severe, is equivalent to hard work. . . .

"When rest is first adopted, the patient may be assured that the bed soreness which he at first experiences will last only a few days. He may be further assured that the loss of muscle tone which will follow the adoption of the rest will rapidly disappear when the proper time for exercise has come. He may be still further assured that he can eat a full and sufficient diet when resting so that he will not suffer from loss of weight unless there be reasons other than the rest to cause it. In fact, the rest is usually accompanied by an unprecedented gain in weight.

"While exercise is the physiologic condtion which is best suited to the needs of a healthy person, when the body is diseased as in tuberculosis, conditions are different, and it often proves harmful. Here rest is the physiologic condition which is demanded.

"Rest, as suggested for the treatment of tuberculosis, implies not only reclining on a bed, but physical and mental repose. It means rest of the muscles, relaxation of the nerves, and mental composure."

Webb and Ryder state, in writing about the fundamentals of the art of getting well: "Above all, rest—and this rest practiced with relaxed abandon and ruthless elimination of whatever obstructs the vital business of recovery."

Have you bought your Christmas Seals to have a little share in the prevention and cure of tuberculosis?

My Dear Followers: When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose 4 cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 250 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember, it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the columns as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

CONFECTION

See how daintily the chic Parisienne solves the problem of using black and white in novel effect. She takes a straight-line one-piece black satin, cuts a very deep V into the front, adds a vest of finely tucked white batiste, then outlines the neck with black and white novelty ribbon. Batiste, edged with ribbon, also forms the collar and cuffs. The girdle may be of black satin or, as in this case, it may be a gorgeous affair in one of the printed metal fabrics. Medium size requires 3 1-4 yards 36-inch satin with 1-2 yard 22-inch tucking and 4 1-2 yards of ribbon.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 1752. Sizes, 14 to 20 years. Price, 40 cents.

IN NAVY TAFFETA

Pert in its simplicity is this frock of navy blue taffeta, which fastens at the left side and affords a splendid chance to use as a trimming some of the button novelties in such great vogue this season. If desired, the bands on the skirt may be omitted, but they are a smart way of breaking the monotony of the straight silhouette. The sleeves may be worn long or short, as fancy dictates. Medium size requires 4 3-8 yards 36-inch taffeta.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 1646. Sizes, 34 to 44 inches bust and 16 to 20 years. Price, 35 cents.

ANSWERED LETTERS

Dolly and Darling: As your requests are of such a personal character, I am suggesting that you send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to have the information mailed to you.

Anxious: The scars left from squeezing out blackheads come from bruising, but they usually disappear without aid after a time. Hot cloths open the pores and relax the skin, but the pores must be closed again and skin toned through using cool and finally very cold water, or, still better, an ice rub. If you leave the pores open there is more chance of clogging with soil, increasing the tendency to blackheads.

The sagging would also result from using only the hot cloths and neglecting the toning which should always follow such treatment. Try the following method: Wash the face each night with warm water and in the place of soap use oatmeal bags, taking care to press the bags against the clogged pores and rinse with very cold water. Do not neglect the daily full warm bath as that relieves the pores of the complexion.

Whenever it is necessary to remove a blackhead it should be done with great care, using a watch key or some instruments that come for this purpose which are shaped much the same as a key, having a rounded edge to the hole. Press the hole over the blackhead, and cleanse the instrument after removing each blackhead. Some cleansing and also astringent solution should then be applied to the skin, such as peroxide of hydrogen.

Brunette: When some of the vertebrae stand out from the others in the spinal column, it shows usually that there is a curvature that should be adjusted by a good osteopathic doctor. No one can be in perfect health if the bones in the spine are not in their correct positions, for it means pressure on nerve centers, causing no end of trouble throughout the whole system. Massage the upper arms with any nourishing oil to fatten them.

P. T. S.: If you can have very good professional treatment for your scalp it would be the best thing you could do for it. If this is not possible, stimulate the action of the scalp by giving it a vigorous massage every day, or several times a day, as you cannot overdo this. Before the shampoo, massage scalp with hot crude oil, and use only soaps made from oils of a good quality, such as the old-fashioned castile soap. I will be glad to send you the formula for a hair tonic and fuller directions in caring for the scalp, if you request it and send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing. I think one reason why young men lose their hair and have scalp troubles is from having combs and brushes used on them promiscuously in some of the barber shops.

A Constant Reader: Palpitation of the heart sometimes comes from nevous sympathy with some other organ that is not functioning properly. It is not a serious condition in itself. It would be advisable for you to have a thorough physical examination, so as to treat the cause of the trouble.

A. R. J.: Advice to "P. T. S." will apply to your case also.

Bobby M.: Extract the coarse hairs with a blunt end tweezers, and bleach the finer hair with peroxide.

Tomorrow—Alum and Milk.

This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

M. W.: "Please tell me how to refinish my imitation mahogany piano. Its finish is cracked and lacks polish. How can I make it look like new?"

Answer: I would not advise you to try to do it yourself. It is too difficult a task. It would mean sandpapering down the present finish, then staining the case mahogany-color and re-varnishing. The result, if you attempted it, might be worse than the present state of the wood. The best you can do is to apply a good furniture polish.

A. M.: "I wonder if any of your readers can tell me how to use Rice Flour in either bread or cake? I have a lot on hand."

Answer: Let us hope some of our readers have experimented with this kind of flour and will send us some recipes for its use.

Mrs. W. W.: "Kindly tell your reader who signed herself 'Mrs. W.' that she can clean her piano keys with spirits of camphor safely. I was told of this method by an old piano maker four years ago and have found it excellent. If one's piano keys are very yellow, this method will whiten them also."

Answer: It was good of you, Reader Friend, to send us this useful hint.

Miss G: "Please tell me what will take yellow paint from a brown velour coat and also what will remove the odor of perspiration from a black serge dress. The serge dress is perspiration-stained as well; what can be done for this?"

Answer: Either gasoline, benzine or ether will remove the paint from your coat. There are also many inflammable fluids on the market for removing paint, and I would advise you to use one of these unless you do the work out of doors (the other fluids mentioned above must not be used near heat or flame).

Serge may be washed in mild soap and warm water at such places where it is stained with perspiration. Press it dry with a warm iron, having a piece of muslin betwee serge and iron. You can sometimes restore the color of serge by painting the faded parts with artists oil paint (the kind that comes in small tubes, procurable at any artists' supply store in a city). Put a little of this paint into a saucer and add a few drops of benzine to it (not near heat or flame.) This thins the paint, and it can then be applied to the material by means of a small paint brush.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Some time ago my husband invited a bachelor friend of his to our house to dinner. He seemed to like this friend very much and the friend seemed to enjoy coming to olr house. He has had dinner with us about half a dozen times now. A week ago I had a birthday, and much to my surprise he sent a dozen beautiful roses. He was not invited to dinner on that occasion, and I was surprised that he knew of my birthday. I am sure I did not mention the matter to him and he must have learned through my husband.

I can see that my husband is jealous over the matter and he felt the bachelor had no right to send flowers to me. I am sure that it was only a courtesy, because there has never been any indication that the man was interested in me. He and my husband have spent their evenings together playing chess while I have washed the dishes and then sat quietly in the room with them sewing.

Do you think my husband has cause to be jealous?

MRS. G. F.

Your husband has no cause to be jealous. His friend simply sent you roses on your birthday to show appreciation for the hospitality he had enjoyed in your home. So many people accept favors time and time again without making any effort to repay. It seems to me both you and your husband have reason to be thankful that the guest who comes to your home appreciates his privilege enough to do something for you in return.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have bobbed hair and I would like to keep it in curl, but I cannot afford a permanent wave and besides, I do not approve of having one because I am afraid it would injure the hair. Is there anything you can recommend to keep my hair in curl? BOBBIE.

Nothing has been discovered that will positively make and keep the hair curly, but the following fluid for the hair, will keep it in curl longer after it is put on curlers:

Take a tablespoonful of bruised quince seed to a pint of hot water. The water is poured over the seeds and the whole allowed to stand for several hours. The resultant mucilage may then be thinned with a few drops of essence of violet. The hair is moistened with the fluid before curling.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young woman twenty-two years of age and have been going with a certain young man for five years. We have been engaged at least four years, but I can't remember just when we became engaged. My fiance never asked me in so many words to marry him, but he began to talk about our future, and he started saving money for the time we could marry. I also started getting a hope chest ready for the time when we would be man and wife.

Now my fiance has told me that he no longer loves me enough to marry me. He says he values me as a friend, but his great love for me no longer exists. He has asked me to release him. This breaks my heart, because I love him as dearly as ever. Do you think he has any right to ask so much of me? What shall I

HEART-BROKEN.

There is only one thing for you to do, and that is to release your fiance, since he no longer wants to marry you. Happiness would not be gained by holding him to his agreement after love is gone. Your heart will ache, of course, but try to be brave and hopeful. Many other girls have suffered and are suffering, for the same reason. Fortunately, time has great healing power.

KEMAL PASHA DETERMINED TO CHECK RED PROPAGANDA

Mustapha Kemal Pasha and his Nationalist government are determined not only to check the spread of a Communist propaganda among the Turks, but also to make the rising labor unions annexes to their 100 per cent Turkish party machine, according to a report on the situation in Constantinople written for the Communist press by Christo Kabaktschief, a leading Balkan member of the Third International. This report, which is confirmatory of occasional cablegrams about friction between Angora and Moscow, begins by telling of the wholesale arrest of Communist propagandists in Angora and other cities in Asia Minor last year, and continues:

KEMAL PASHA

"In Constantinople there are two fair-sized labor organizations. The International Workers' union takes in the class-conscious workers of all nationalities, such as Greeks and Armenians, who are numerous in Constantinople, and of all trades. It is affiliated with the Red Trade Union International and works toward the reorganization of the old trade unions. The Association of Workers of Turkey is numerically larger and is made up largely of employes in state industries. There are also Communist groups which have been actively agitating among organized and unorganized workers for the last year.

Seen as Liberators

"The entry of the Kemalist troops into Constantinople was greeted by the popular masses as national liberation. The larger part of the working folk believed that the new regime would bring them rights and freedom and better conditions. But they were deceived. The reaction quickly intensified its attacks upon the workers' organizations. Both of the aforementioned unions were forbidden to carry on any kind of propaganda or to hold conferences. The activities of local unions in which they were represented by class-conscious workers were also hampered. A nationalist, purely chauvinistic baiting of workers of other nationalities was begun and they were driven out of the shops and replaced by Turks.

"After the fifth Communist Balkan conference a special committee was created in Constantinople for the purpose of utilizing the Communist and labor organization in Turkey, and its call for a conference was responded to by fifteen unions. In Constantinople there exists a so-called General Union of the Proletariat of Constantinople headed by Shakir Bey, an adventurer and tool of the Kemalists, which aims to line the proletariat up with the government and make it serviceable to the latter's reactionary and nationalist policy.

Non-Turks Excluded

"This Shakir Bey appeared at the conference as the representative of a union and, with the help of the police, succeeded in excluding all the non-Turkish workers. The whole conference protested, but several sessions were held and the statutes of the future General Union of the Organized Workers of Constantinople were drawn up. These are now awaiting approval by the government."

The Communist writer then describes the banning of a May day celebration in Constantinople by the Kemalist authorities and the arrest of a number of members of the International Workers' union on charges of plotting revoultion and concludes by declaring that Kemal Pasha has sold out the working people of Turkey to western capitalists.

VALLEY NEWS

BROADER VISION NEEDED, IS CLAIM

Realtors' President Condemns Cutting of Valley Lands in 25-Foot Lots

Necessity for a broader outlook in subdividing San Fernando valley lands, was the keynote struck by Henry P. Barbour, president of the California Real Estate association, in his address last Thursday night, December 13, before the Van Nuys Realty board, on the occasion of their annual banquet and election of officers.

The scene of the big affair, which made James R. Goldsworthy president for the coming year, was the Hollywood Country club. President Charles A. Bevis, retiring chief executive of the local board, presided over the banquet, which had for its piece de resistance, choice young turkey grown in the valley.

Mr. Barbour decried the policy of cutting up every piece of boulevard frontage into 25-foot lots, arguing that the section was the granary of Los Angeles and should be so maintained. Other speakers favored making five acres the smallest unit of subdivision, in cutting up the great ranches.

Those who spoke included, also, Glenn D. Willaman secretary of the state association; George W. Bunton, secretary of the Van Nuys Chamber of Commerce; O. J. Renfrew, secretary of the Lankershim Chamber of Commerce; V. S. Walters of the San Fernando Realty Board; Mr. Forsythe of the Lankershim board; Arthur W. Huskins of Zelzah; George E. Hume, manager of the Van Nuys branch of the California Bank; W. E. Bierkamp, manager of the Van Nuys Finance Corporation, and Garrett McHugh of the local post of the American Legion.

Historic Spot Marked

Just opposite the Universal studio last Thursday afternoon, December 13, the spot where Colonel Fremont and Governor Pico signed the Treaty of Cahuenga in 1847, was fittingly marked by the California History and Landmarks club, which has been working since 1916 to have a memorial set up on this spot.

The site comprises lots Nos. 16 and 17 of the Universal City tract. They were purchased last spring by the city of Los Angeles, to be made into a memorial park.

Last Thursday afternoon a memorial tablet was placed there, before a gathering of some hundreds of people, thus ending for all time the argument as to the location of the exact spot where the famous treaty was signed that made California a part of the United States.

Valley Brings $14,000

The entire San Fernando valley was sold for $14,000 in 1846, by Pio Pico, last Spanish governor of California, in order to raise money to fight the Americans.

If ever there was a forlorn crusade against an overwhelming conqueror, it was this last stand of Governor Pico against Colonel Fremont, the American commander.

The final humiliating surrender took place January 13, 1847, in the Cahuenga chapel, on the property described above. A picture of Pio Pico is in the possession of Fred Weddington of Lankershim.

MRS. E. MARKEY WINS GAS RANGE

Eagle Rock Woman Receives Christmas Present From Glendale Hardware

Mrs. E. Markey, of 2961 Broadway, Eagle Rock, is the winner of the all-white enamel Wedgewood gas range offered by the Glendale Hardware company to one of ten buyers of the Maytag aluminum washer, following a drawing at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the store, 601 East Broadway.

The drawing was made by a small boy, under the supervision of "Washer" Cox, and in the presence of several dozen people. The sale of the Maytag washing machine that entitled Mrs. Markey to the chance on the range was made by G. Berg, salesman under Mr. Cox, for the Glendale Hardware company.

Sale of four Maytag washing machines yesterday is reported by Mr. Cox, who gives as the reason for their great popularity, the fact that they are unquestionably the best product of the kind on the market and are enormous time-savers, taking the "blues" out of Monday.

Lion tamers are said to favor an electrically charged wire instead of a whip in training their animals.
